STAND FORTH O WORTH CRAFTSMEN
(Master Elect's Song)

Stand forth, O worthy Craftsmen,
In order's fair array,
Stand forth with strains of gladness,
To greet our festal day.
Praise we the Great Creator,
Our hearts and voices raise,
His gates with songs to enter,
And tread His courts with praise.

Here joined in holy union,
Assembling year by year,
With one accord to serve Him,
We in the Lodge appear.
So with a joyful anthem,
Our praises shall unite;
May this our humble service,
Be pleasing in His sight!

Sung to the hymn tune
